

ARLEY SIDEBOARD

From
£17,250.00

Description

Arley has a modern gothic inspiration. The great hand selected chestnut panels are carefully cut to produce the perfect quatrefoils that give this piece its style and define its size. Originally shown in a dirty white painted finish with antiqued mirrored panels it has been swept up in the waive of fine chestnuts that we show at present. The painted cabinet is still available and is most alluring. The informal qualities of Arley make it suitable for traditional interiors. Whether in a hall, dining room or smart kitchen this cupboard smartly hides its storage capacities. As with all William Yeoward bespoke furniture the Arley sideboard can be crafted in a variety of timbers from oak and chestnut through to mahogany and walnut.
