

MARQUETTE CONSOLE GREY FRUITWOOD

£2,850.00

Description

The inspiration for the Marquette was a 19th-century fruitwood table owned by William's cousin in Wiltshire. The name 'Marquette' was inspired by it's original position in a room that had a rather French feel. Elegant with a fine form and topped with sturdy marble makes Marquette ideal for everyday purposes.

Please note this product is only suitable for delivery to mainland UK postcodes.

Additional Information

Finish	Grey Fruitwood
Lead Time	Back in stock soon
Material	Wood/Marble
Depth	56cm
Height	81cm
Width	141cm
Brand	William Yeoward

