

CONSUL THE MONKEY CALCULATOR

£24.00

Description

A wonderful mechanical calculator based on a vintage design. Simply adjust his feet, and Consul's hands will give you the answer.

This vintage tinsplate reproduction of Consul, the Educated Monkey is made in Germany, and based on the much-loved character of stage and screen at the turn of the 20th century. Consul could eat with a knife and fork, ride a bicycle and throw things at blonde woman, but he was also a mathematical genius.

Suitable for children 14 years and over.
