

TABLE TALK PLACECARDS

£12.50

Description

A meal with friends is only ever as good as the questions we ask one another, so why not liven up your dinner parties with these intriguing placecards to spark meaningful and revealing conversations around your table.

This pack of 40 placecards collects 80 questions to ensure a meal together can be at once meaningful, entertaining and touching. Laid out on placecards, the questions gently and charmingly pull our fellow diners towards the sort of topics that matter most to our deeper selves - and help us get the most out of one another.

Instructions

1. Use 1 card per place setting.
2. Fold each card in half and add your guest's name. Now you can select who sits next to whom.
3. Each card has 2 questions. Prompt your guests to use them over the meal as a way to get to know their neighbours and have more interesting and meaningful conversations.

Questions Include:

- What do other people not understand about you?
- What do you worry about in the middle of the night?
- Which three adjectives capture important things about you?
- When you feel upset, how - ideally - would you like to be comforted?
- What's the best way to break up a relationship?
- If you were braver, what would you be doing with your life?
- In what ways is your family especially odd?
- What have you learnt about yourself in the past year?
- What do you look for in a very close friend?
- What kind of character trait that you don't possess do you find attractive in others?

40x double sided placecards. 400gsm card.
