

BRANCH CANDLE PEACOCK

£18.95

Description

Inspired by nature The Branch Candle is made from 100% beeswax and lovingly hand cast from tree branches collected from sunny walks in Ravenscourt Park in West London. Nothing quite beats the real thing, that's why each candle is made using traditional candle-making methods and brought up-to-date with modern molding techniques which aim to capture every last detail, down to the fine texture on the tree's branches.

When you burn The Branch candle, expect subtle notes of sweet honey and absolutely no GM Soy, synthetic fragrances, or toxins.

Each candle is packaged in a handmade and screen printed box using water-based paints and recyclable card.

Burn time: 10 hours
