Description

Limpton's fine, slender and well executed lines are the hallmarks of Yeoward upholstery. This William Yeoward carver chair is bench made by hand in England. The frame is constructed of sustainable European hardwood with dowelled screwed and glued joints. The interiors are traditionally hand webbed and sprung using British products and fillings. UNIQUE OFFER We have a one-off Limpton carver chair, which was made for a photoshoot - as good as new! Upholstered in Olivia Denim, an elegant damask pattern which was re-created by William from an original indigo antique fabric piece from the 19th Century, which is digitally printed on a linen rich ground. The back of the chair is in a complementary velvet and it is trimmed with a white crisp contrast. Legs are hand-finished in a rich dark oak.
