

CHALCO - SIENNA

Description

A perfectly balanced stripe with intricate jacquard detailing. Woven using a blend of cotton and jute yarns to emulate the feel of the vintage archive pieces. Perfect for elegant upholstery.

Additional Information

| Colourway               | Sienna                             |
|-------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Composition             | 75%Cotton 25%Jute                  |
|                         | 707000001120700000                 |
| Martindale              | 30000                              |
| D                       | D. II                              |
| Pattern                 | Pattern                            |
| Season                  | SS32                               |
|                         |                                    |
| Collection              | Palenque Collection 2021, Palenque |
| Roll Width              | 134.5cm                            |
| Roll Width              | 134.3011                           |
| Vertical Pattern Repeat | 0cm                                |
|                         |                                    |

Product Images

